Californians depend on a steady paycheck to fuel their cars, put food on the table and pay their mortgages. That's why it's not right that Gov. Arnold Schwarzenegger signed an order to lay off of more than 10,000 employees and slash state worker pay to the federal minimum wage of $6.55 per hour.

SEIU Healthcare United Long-Term Care Workers' Union stands in solidarity with public sector workers in fighting the Governor's unfair and illegal action. And we salute state Controller John Chiang for his unrelenting refusal to enforce the executive order.

STOP THE GOVERNOR

Please call the Governor today at (916) 445-2841. Tell him we need a fair budget that isn't balanced on the back's of working Californians.
